ANNEXURE A

GENERAL CONDITIONS THAT WILL BE APPLICABLE TO THE SERVICE LEVEL AGREEMENT (SLA)

INSURANCE

The services supplied under the contract shall be fully insured.

ASSIGNMENT

The contractor shall not assign, in whole or in part, its obligations to perform under the contract, except with the CID's prior written consent.

SUB-CONTRACTS

The contractor shall notify the CID in writing of all sub-contracts awarded under this contract, if not already specified in the quotation. Such notification, in the original quotation or later, shall not relieve the contractor from any liability or obligation under the contract.

DELAYS IN THE CONTRACTOR'S PERFORMANCE

- The performance of services shall be made by the contractor in accordance with the time schedule prescribed by the CID in the SLA.
- If at any time during performance of the contract, the contractor or its subcontractor(s) should encounter conditions impeding timely performance of services, the contractor shall promptly notify the CID in writing of the delay, its likely duration and its cause(s). As soon as practicable after receipt of the contractor's notice, the CID shall evaluate the situation and may at its discretion extend the contractor's time for performance, with or without the imposition of penalties, in which case the extension shall be ratified by the parties by amendment of the SLA
- The right is reserved to have minor essential services executed by another party if an emergency arises, or when the contractor's services are not readily available.

PENALTIES

If the contractor fails to perform the services within the period(s) specified in the SLA, the CID shall, without prejudice to its other remedies under the SLA, deduct from the contract price, as a penalty, a sum calculated on the unperformed services using the current prime interest rate calculated for each day of the delay until actual performance.

TERMINATION FOR DEFAULT

The CID, without prejudice to any other remedy for breach of contract, by written notice of default sent to the contractor, may terminate this SLA in whole or in part if the contractor:

- Fails to deliver any or all of the services within the period(s) specified in the SLA, or within any extension thereof granted by the CID
- Fails to perform any other obligation(s) under the SLA; or
- In the judgment of the CID, has engaged in corrupt or fraudulent practices in competing for, or in executing the contract.

In the event that the CID terminates the contract in whole or in part, the CID may procure, upon such terms and in such manner as it deems appropriate, services similar to those undelivered, and the contractor shall be liable to the CID for any excess. However, the contractor shall continue the performance of the SLA to the extent not terminated.

FORCE MAJEURE

- The contractor shall not be liable for forfeiture of its performance security, damages, or termination for default if and to the extent that its delay in performance or other failure to perform its obligations under the SLA is the result of an event of force majeure.
- If a force majeure situation arises, the contractor shall promptly notify the CID in writing of such condition and the cause thereof. Unless otherwise directed by the CID in writing, the contractor shall continue to perform its obligations under the SLA as far as is reasonably practical and shall seek all reasonable alternative means for performance not prevented by the force majeure event.

TERMINATION FOR INSOLVENCY

The CID may at any time terminate the SLA by giving written notice to the contractor if the contractor becomes bankrupt or otherwise insolvent. In this event, termination will be without compensation to the contractor, provided that such termination will not prejudice or affect any right of action or remedy which has accrued or will accrue thereafter to the CID.

SETTLEMENT OF DISPUTES

- If any dispute or difference of any kind whatsoever arises between the CID and the contractor in connection with or arising out of the SLA, the parties shall make every effort to resolve amicably such dispute or difference by mutual consultation.
- If, after thirty (30) days, the parties have failed to resolve their dispute or difference by such mutual consultation, then either the CID or the contractor may give notice to the other party of its intention to commence with mediation. No mediation in respect of this matter may be commenced unless such notice is given to the other party.
- Should it not be possible to settle a dispute by means of mediation, it may be settled in a South African court of law.

LIMITATION OF LIABILITY

Except in cases of criminal negligence or wilful misconduct:

The contractor shall not be liable to the CID, whether in contract, tort, or otherwise, for any indirect or consequential loss or damage, loss of use, loss of production, or loss of profits or interest costs, provided that this exclusion shall not apply to any obligation of the contractor to pay penalties and/or damages to the CID.

APPLICABLE LAW

The SLA shall be interpreted in accordance with South African laws.

TAXES

The contractor shall be entirely responsible for its own tax affairs

No SLA shall be concluded with any SP whose tax matters are not in order. Prior to the award of a bid, SARS must have certified that the tax matters of the preferred SP are in order.

TRANSFER OF CONTRACTS

The contractor shall not abandon, transfer, cede, assign or sublet a contract or part thereof without the written permission of the CID.

CONFIDENTIALITY

The CID and the contractor may disclose to each other confidential information relating to the business or operations of either party.

The information to be disclosed is confidential and proprietary to the contracting parties and each of the parties is willing to disclose mutually this information for purposes of entering into an SLA only, and undertake to protect and keep confidential such information.

AMENDMENT OF THE SLA

An agreement to amend or vary the SLA, or order or the conditions, stipulations or provisions thereof shall not be valid and of any force unless such agreement to amend or vary is entered into in writing and signed by the contracting parties.
